Bible Story

God Goes with Jacob (Genesis 28:10-22)

Today we learned about Jacob, the second-born son of twin boys. After his mother, Rebekah, helps him trick his father, Isaac, and steal the birthright and blessing from his older brother, Esau, Jacob runs away. Along the way, Jacob stops to rest for a night and has a dream where Messengers of God are going up and down a giant staircase or ladder. Then, God appears in the dream and speaks to Jacob. In the dream, God doesn't condemn Jacob. Instead, God promises to bless Jacob with land, many descendants, protection, and other blessings. Jacob promises to follow God. When he wakes up, Jacob remembers the dream and realizes that God was with him all along and can be trusted. Then, Jacob takes the stone where he rested his head, turns it upright, anoints it with oil, and uses it as a pillar to mark this holy place. Jacob called it Bethel, or "God's House."
