Trust God to Lead the Way!

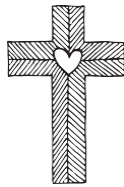

Bible Story

Ruth Chooses to Go (Ruth 1)

Ruth 1 tells us about Naomi, a woman from Bethlehem living in Moab in a time of famine, and her two Moabite daughters-in-law. After the death of Naomi's husband and two sons, the famine ends and Naomi decides to return to Bethlehem. Though Naomi encourages her daughters-in-law to stay in Moab and find new husbands, one of them, Ruth, chooses return to Bethlehem with Naomi. Though Naomi had experienced much loss, the end of the famine served to remind her that God was with her and would make a new life for her at home in Bethlehem. In choosing to stay with Naomi and follow her to Bethlehem, Ruth is also choosing to follow God. Ruth even tells Naomi that "your God will be my God." Ruth and Naomi arrive in Bethlehem and are warmly greeted just as the barley harvest is beginning. God led the way to a new life.
